

Dear everyone at Camp,

I would like to take a minute to thank everyone. It is incredible that you all take a week off, take time away from your pools to come up to take care of other peoples loved ones. It makes me so happy to see that we are all having a great experience in what God sees you do here and at home. I feel like if I had a grown up adult kid, I would know what would be good for my kid – this camp. This is a camp where they pick out stories to tell and make costumes. Everybody thinks it is real. I love watching others believe in it. I would like to thank the people in the show. And the people that help us in the water. And all the people who help us in the dining room cooking the food. And the people who help who give us food for the week. If I was not in a wheelchair, I would do the same for you and more. For the rest of the year I daydream about this week and never forget you all and everything we did this week. And I always dream about us still being here together and the way it is going to be in the coming year, 2 thousand and 13. And if anybody needs me, do not forget to call me. Please do not forget to remember that you all did a good job!
